IMPORTANT NOTE:

1. Only students with VALID means of identification will be allowed to take part in examinations.
2. Any omission of course or wrongly indicated course(s) that is/are not applicable should be urgently reported to the Exam Officer
3. Students, Attendants and Invigilators are advised to report to exam venues 30 minutes before the commencement of examinations
4. Invigilators are to collect the exam question papers from the Exam Officer in the HOD's office and return completed answer booklets to the Exam Officer
5. Attendants are to collect answer booklets, attendant sheets and malpractice forms from the Departmental office and take attendance during examinations
6. No communication/electronic devices (eg. GSM and smart wrist watches) are allowed into the examination hall as this constitutes examination malpractice.
7. Students should completely avoid Examination Malpractice/ Misconduct. The minimum punishment for an offender is EXPULSION from the University.
8. Failure to complete and sign malpractice/misconduct forms is a separate offence and attracts punishment.
9. Students should endeavor to stay clear of temptations, ensuring civility during interactions with invigilators.
10. The Head of Department wishes you success in your examinations.
